Lough-Nutter.

At 6 o'clock Wednesday evening the marriage of Loy L. Lough, of Bluefield, and Miss Lolo Lou Nutter was solemnized at the home of the bride's father at Salem, the Rev. Mansfield McWhorter, an aged relative of the bride, performing the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with long stemmed chrysanthemums and ferns. A few intimate friends and relatives of the couple were present at the wedding. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for a two weeks' trip to Washington and other eastern cities, and when they return they will take up their residence in Bluefield, where Mr. Lough is agent for the Coal and Coke railroad. The bride is a charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Nutter, of Salem, and has a large number of friends who wish her good luck.

Aid Society Entertained.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Adamston Methodist Episcopal church was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. K. Hutchinson, of Adamston. After the devotional business session of the society the hostess served a delicious luncheon which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The members present were Mrs. Cecil Sullivan, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Charles Barth, Mrs. Wesley Palmer, Mrs. Charles Hebb, Mrs. A. V. Upton, Mrs. Anna Baxter, the Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Hammond, Mrs. John W. Flanagan, Mrs. Arthur Kidd, Mrs. Lloyd Limbers, Mrs. Calder Wyckoff and Mrs. Harold Gabriel. The visitors present were Mrs. Bachus, Mrs. Louisa Moore, Master George Smith, Herbert Limbers, John Kirkpatrick, William Hutchinson and Misses Frances Upton and Viola Kirkpatrick.

With Mrs. Alexander.

One of the social affairs of this afternoon was the meeting of the Five Table Card Club, which was delightfully entertained by Mrs.

Mrs. Weaver Honor Guest.

The members of the Gullie embroidery circle were most pleasantly entertained by Mrs. B. Williams at her home in East Morgantown Tuesday evening. The guest of honor was Mrs. John B. Weaver, of Clarksburg. The house was beautifully decorated in fall foliage and the color scheme was carried out in white and pink. Sewing and music were the diversions of the evening. Mrs. D. C. Phillips won the first prize in the proverb contest, and Mrs. John B. Weaver was given the consolation prize. Miss Elvira Williams assisted the hostess in serving supper at the close of an enjoyable evening.—Morgantown Post-Chronicle.

Junior Bridge Club.

The Junior Bridge Club met with Mrs. William Newlon Wednesday afternoon in her home on Chestnut street. Two tables were in use for auction bridge and at the close of the game the prizes were awarded to Miss Florence Grove and Miss Webster, of Virginia. At 5 o'clock tea and sandwiches were served. Those who enjoyed the afternoon's diversion were Mrs. Maybury Harrison, Miss Grace Duncan, Miss Mildred Lambert, Miss Florence Grove, Miss Amelia Vance, Miss Webster, of Virginia, and Miss Mabel Carr.

Scores Triumph.

Signor Campanari, who will appear in an artist recital at the First Baptist church Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Marcato Music Club, has scored veritable triumphs in "Song recital;" his superb voice, pure style and masterly interpretations all combine to make his work a continued delight. Miss Renshaw will be in charge of the program. Season tickets will be on sale at $2.00.

Mothers' Club Meets.

The Mothers' Club of Stealey Heights held a very interesting and successful meeting Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the Duff street United Brethren church. Seventeen members were present and plans were laid for work to be done in the next six months. Meetings to be held in Glen Elk and Northview were also arranged. A subscription club of eleven members was formed for the American Motherhood.
